- i) the Section being stated as "included" in the Schedule or having a Limit of Liability or Sum Insured specified therein; plus

This document has been issued by the Coverholder as an agent of the Insurer.

The Society should read the Schedule carefully and if it is incorrect return it as soon as reasonably practicable to their insurance broker for alteration.

It is essential that:

- the Society checks that each of the covered Sections and the Schedule are correct according to the Membership Cover Level(s) selected by the Society for its Members.
- the Society complies with their duties under each Section and under this insurance as a whole.
- Members comply with their duties as indicated in this Policy and in the evidence of insurance supplied to such Members.

If the Society is in any doubt as to whether or not a fact is material they should disclose it to Us.

The Society must pay to Us all premiums due to Us together with all taxes due on the premiums.

In all communications the Policy number specified in the Schedule should be quoted.

Reference to any statute or statutory provision and orders or regulations thereunder shall include a reference to that provision, order or regulation as amended, re-enacted or replaced from time to time.

This insurance and the information disclosed by the Society

In deciding to accept this insurance and in setting the terms and premium, We have relied on the information the Society has given Us. The Society must take care when answering any questions We ask by ensuring that all information provided is accurate and complete.

If We establish that the Society deliberately or recklessly provided Us with false or misleading information We will treat this insurance as if it never existed and decline all claims. We may not return premium already paid by the Society in this situation.

If We establish that the Society provided Us with false, incomplete or misleading information and that it was not deliberate or reckless on their part, it can still adversely affect this insurance and any claim hereunder.

For example:

- (a) where We could have accepted the risk and offered the Society an insurance but We would have charged a higher premium, We may only pay a percentage of any claim that a Member makes under this insurance. We would do this by considering the premium We actually charged as a percentage of the higher premium We would have charged and then paying the Member the same percentage of any claim.

So, as an example: if the premium We actually charged was £250 and the higher premium We would have charged was £1,000, then the premium We actually charged represents 25% of the higher premium We would have charged and We shall only pay 25% of any claim.

- (b) We may treat this insurance as if it had never existed and refuse to pay all claims and return the premium, subject to a deduction for any commission paid to the Society's insurance broker. We will only do this if the false, incomplete or misleading information means that We provided the Society with insurance cover for its Members when We would not otherwise have offered it at all had the risk been fairly presented.
- (c) if We would have written the risk on different terms had it been fairly presented, We may amend this insurance to include these terms. We may apply these amended terms as if they were already in place before a claim is made.
- (d) We may cancel this insurance in accordance with its cancellation provisions.

We will write to the Society if We:

- (i) reduce a Member's claim in accordance with the above; or
- (ii) intend to treat this insurance as if it never existed; or
- (iii) amend the terms of this insurance.

If the Society becomes aware that information they have given Us is inaccurate or incomplete or if the information changes, they must inform Us without delay. We will be entitled to vary the premium and the terms for the rest of the Period of Insurance or, if the changes make the risk unacceptable to Us, We are under no obligation to make them and may no longer be able to provide the Members with insurance cover in which case We may cancel this insurance cover in accordance with the cancellation provisions.

Observance of insurance terms and suspension of cover

Every condition precedent that applies to this insurance (whether to one or more Sections or this insurance as a whole) shall apply and continue to be in force during the whole currency of this insurance. If the Society or a Member breaches any such condition precedent cover will be suspended for the period from the date of the breach until the breach has been remedied.

We will have no liability under this insurance in respect of any loss occurring or attributable to something happening during a period of non-compliance with a condition precedent unless the Society or the Member can prove that the breach of the condition precedent could not have increased the risk of the loss which actually occurred in the circumstances in which it occurred.

The Society's right to cancel

The Society has the right to cancel this insurance within 14 (fourteen) days of receiving the contract documentation or from the day of the conclusion of the contract, whichever day is the later, and receive a full refund of any premium paid. For the purposes of this cancellation clause, it will be considered that the Society will have received the insurance documents upon the day following the date they were posted to the Society by first class post or were supplied to the Society electronically or the Society was supplied with the means by which they could access them electronically. If the Society does cancel this insurance within the initial 14 (fourteen) days period, then no cover will have been in place from the date of inception, as specified in the Schedule, and no liability whatsoever shall attach to Us in respect of this insurance.

If the Society does not exercise their right of cancellation within the initial 14 (fourteen) days period, this insurance will automatically come into force from the inception date specified in the Schedule and the Society will be liable to pay the full premium.

Following the expiry of the initial 14 (fourteen) days period, this insurance may be cancelled at any time at the Society's written request. A pro-rata refund of premium will be allowed for the unexpired portion of the Period of Insurance but We will not allow a return of premium if any claims have been either paid, reported or are outstanding.

To exercise the right to cancel this insurance the Society should contact the insurance broker who arranged this cover for them.

The law that governs the interpretation of this insurance

All disputes concerning the interpretation of this insurance are understood and agreed by both the Society and by Us to be subject to English Law. Each party agrees to submit to the jurisdiction of any court of competent jurisdiction within England or Wales and to comply with all requirements necessary to give such court jurisdiction. All matters arising hereunder shall be determined in accordance with the law and practice of such court. In the event that, at the commencement of the Period of Insurance, the Society is located in Scotland or Northern Ireland then the law of that country will apply.

Claims notification

All claims under this insurance are to be notified to Us using the following method and quoting the Policy number:

Please notify Our appointed claims representatives using the contact details specified in the Schedule.
